Milwaukee Fellows

The month of August was an eventful one for MKE Fellows and ALIVE staff alike. For many Fellows, August brought their summer internships to a close, and saw them returning to school or college. Fellows who successfully completed their internships received stock courtesy of the Milwaukee Fellows. Fellows who completed their internships and have not yet obtained their stock should contact Ms. Hall via email at khall@alivemke.com no later than September 15th, 2023.

Fellows Movie Outing: Mission Impossible-Dead Reckoning

As a farewell bid to the summer, Fellows attended a movie outing with Engagement Manager Mr. Michael Hyler, and saw the newly released Mission Impossible-Dead Reckoning. This was an event where fellows strengthened their bond with one another, discussed newly gained knowledge from internships, and bid one another good luck for the upcoming school year all while enjoying a good movie!

Fellowship Youth Open

On Friday, August 11th, the 2nd annual Fellowship Youth Open took place at Currie Park Golf Course, an event that gave any interested youth the opportunity to try their hand at golf. The event was open for all Wisconsin youth free of charge! Youth were paired with mentors to learn the basics of golf, and reported having a fantastic experience and surprisingly growing fond of the sport throughout the day. Event director Billy Young shared some of the benefits of the sport, including networking opportunities and exposure to new partnerships.

Professional Development

Each month, ALIVE hosts a Professional Development session to help enhance Fellows' overall growth. Fellows are taught necessary college and career readiness skills, putting them far ahead of competition. This month's professional development session focused on exposing Fellows to renowned local colleges and universities as well as teaching them crucial linkedin skills. Wayne Breitbarth came in to teach Fellows how to best utilize LinkedIn alongside speakers from schools like UW-Parkside and Lakeland College to talk to Fellows about the benefits, and opportunities their schools offer.

Green Bay Packers vs. New England Patriots

After a morning of learning at the Professional Development session at the ABC4PD, (Associated Bank Center for Professional Development,) some of the fellows accompanied executive director John Daniels to a Packers game in Green Bay courtesy of Associated Bank. While the Packers could not pull off a win, Fellows were excited to be in the historic Lambeau field with thousands of cheering fans.

Celebrating the Daniels Family

On the Wednesday preceding the Fellowship Open, some of the Daniels family and their closest friends came together to celebrate the extraordinary contributions that John Daniels and his family have made to the Milwaukee Community with the Milwaukee Fellows program. Guests enjoyed appetizers, drinks, snacks, and speeches by influential members of the Milwaukee Community at the Milwaukee Sails Loft. Guests included Ki Advocate Health, Brad Vynalek from Quarles & Brady, Jackie Herd Barber, and other prominent Milwaukee figures.

23rd Annual Fellowship Open

During the month of August, ALIVE hosted the 23rd Annual Fellowship Open Celebration. A golf tournament bringing together some of Milwaukee's most influential to raise money to support local youth. This year's Fellowship Open saw popular faces like those of Hall of Famer LeRoy Butler, Pro Football Hall of Famer Jerome "the Bus" Bettis, Gilbert Brown, Mayor Cavalier Johnson, and Dr. Dawyne Edwards who had the chance to meet with Milwaukee Fellow Desharr Saddler leaving a lasting impression. This year's tournament was hosted at Kettle Hills Golf Course, providing golfers with a larger golf and superb views. The 23rd Annual Fellowship Open was a great success, and we would like to extend our thanks to everyone who attended and helped contribute to making the event possible.
